The election gave Ron Starr the position

WVBU cannot be supplied by the CBS network because they feel that they are well covered in the area.

WJJR for mutual network would be of minimal cost (telephone line)

WMPT for ABC network would cost over $1,000.

Further appropriations would be necessary from the ABS

Proposal by Paul Hill to purchase Broadcasting Magazine. This is a weekly magazine that tells the rules and regulations of the FCC. It is important for technical aspects of FCC rules.

John Cox desires an "apprentice" or assistant music director to take some of the time consumption out of the job. An assistant would get insight into the job so that he may take over the job when John resigns.

T-shirts will probably cost $1.25 - $1.50 per shirt.

Stereo House may be approached to defray cost (their logo would be printed on it also)
